Dear Dr. Burleigh :

Thank you very much for the information you sent in answer to my question about the Benedict family, and for giving me Hazel Mathew's name in connection with the early name changes in The New England States.

The University of Toronto Press have given me her address in Florida where they tell me she spends much of her time, and have advised me to write to her there; as they are of the opinion that " Frontier Spies " was never published.

I have delayed answering your letter, hoping that the Ontario Archives will be able to locate the book about the Benedict family published in 1870 which is referred to in the work of W.D. Read, and they say now that it is quite doubtful if they will ever find it now.

I have explored every avenue I can think of with no success, and if you have any suggestion as to where a copy may be found, I would be very pleased to know about it.

Just in case you offer a suggestion, I am enclosing this envelope for your use. can

With my kind regards, I am

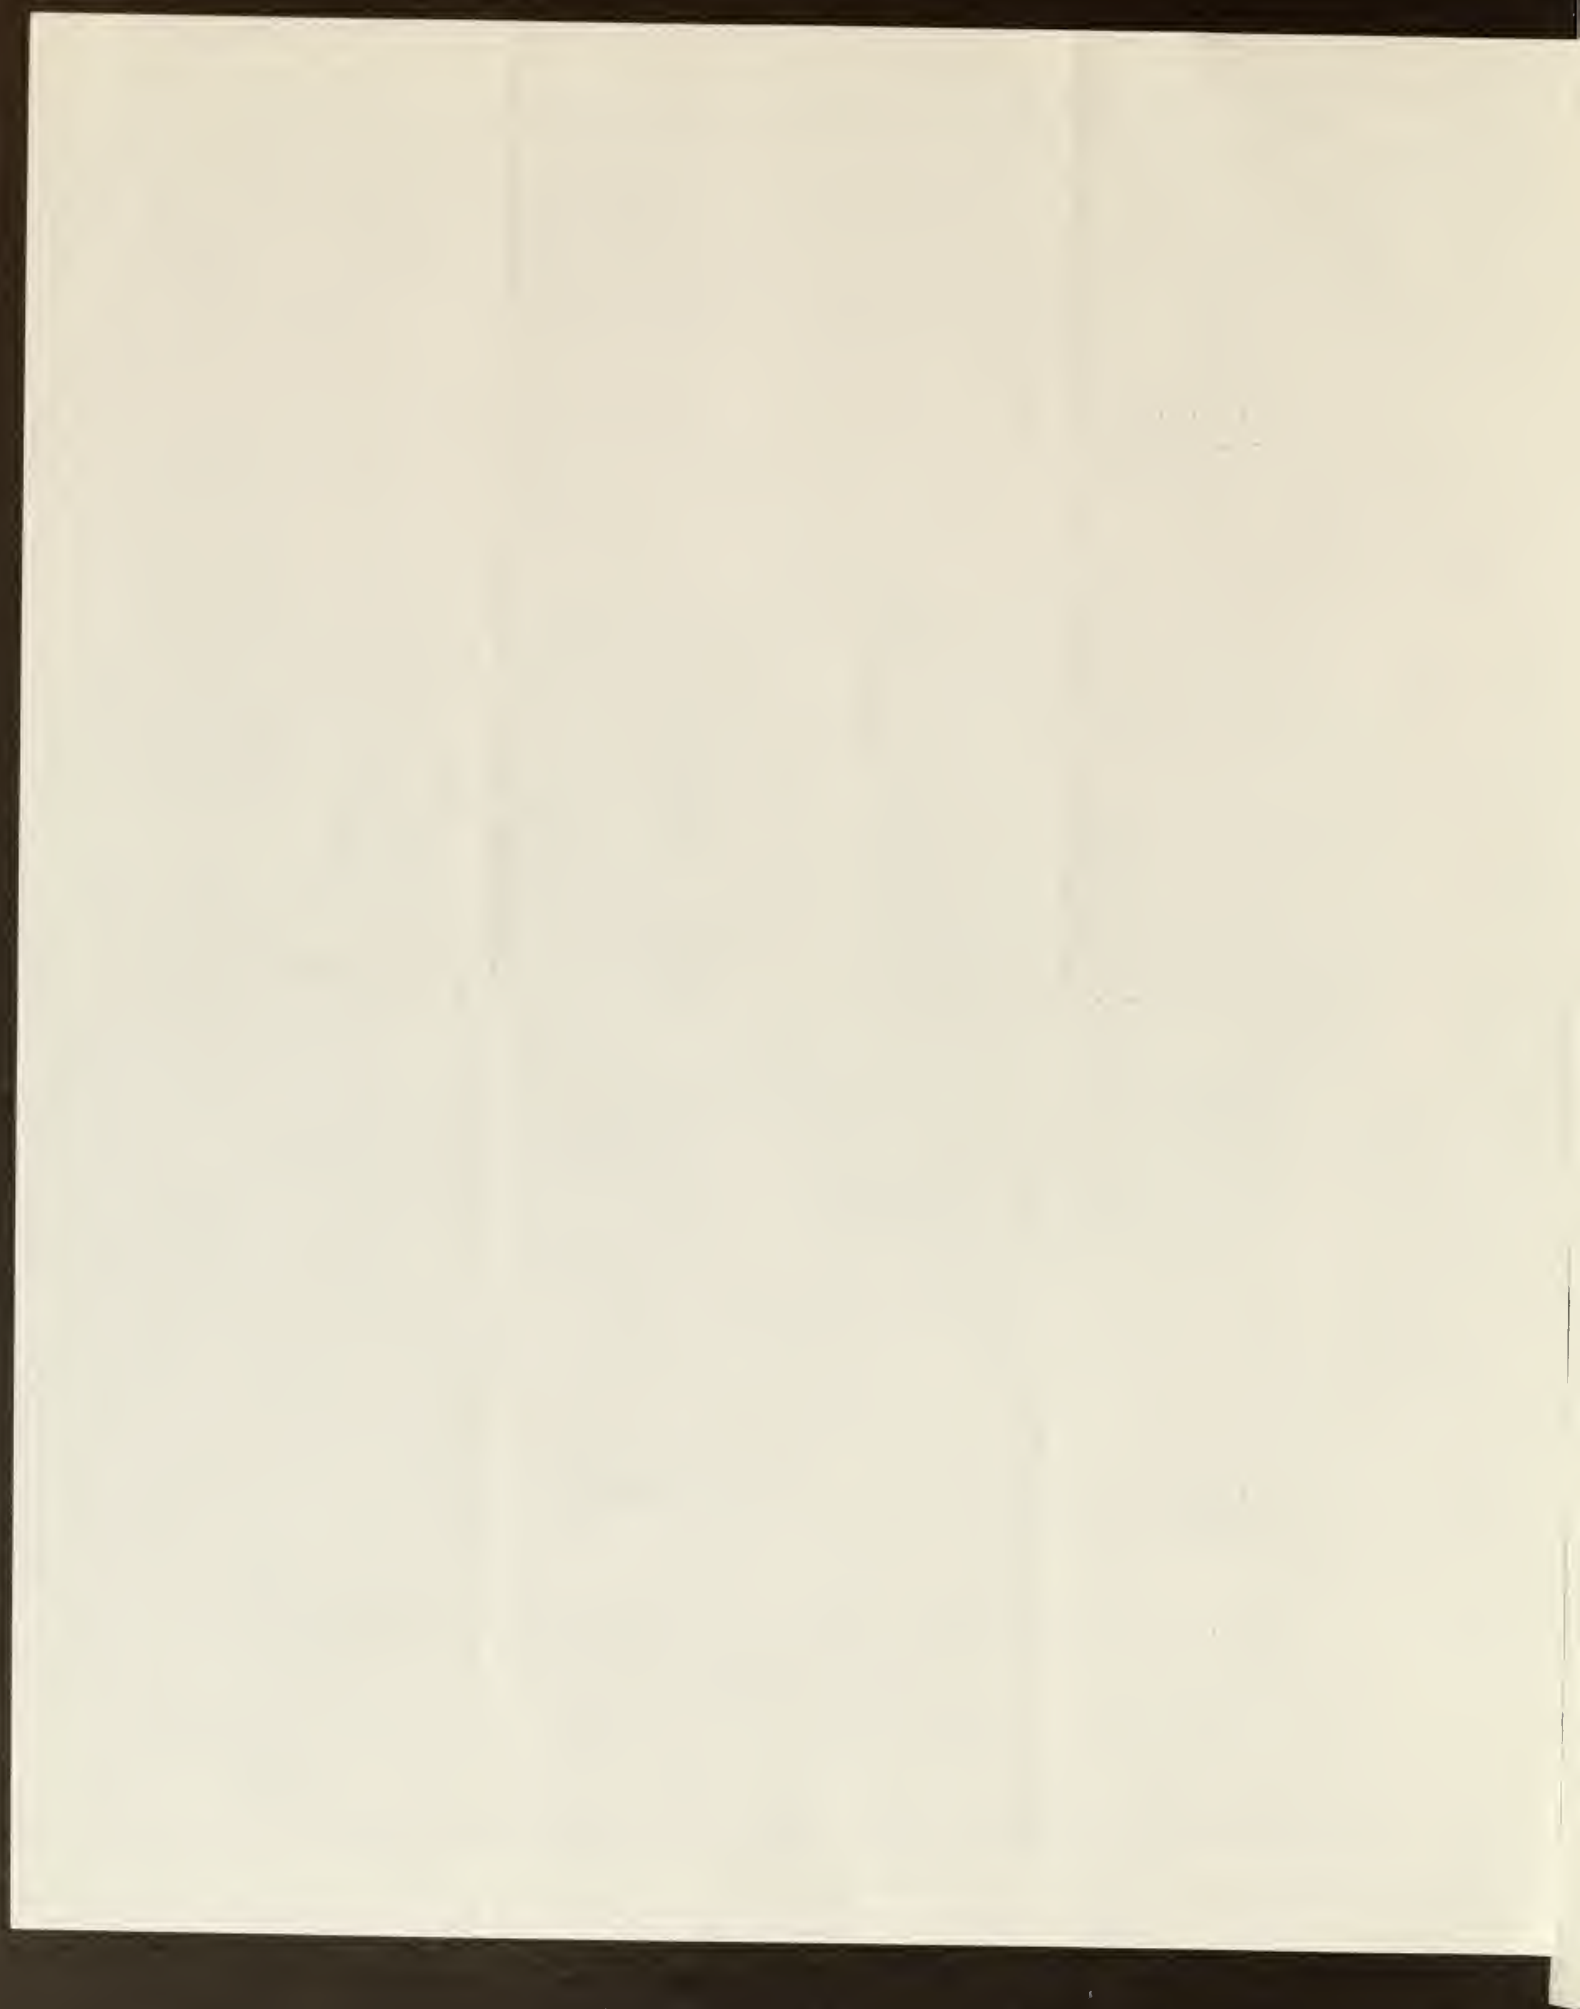

Yours very truly

Mr. Agnes de Lon at the above address.

...H. C. Burleigh...

P.S. Could you tell me please if " Loyalist Point Cemetery " on Hay Bay, is near the old Hay Bay church built in 1792, which is open to the public during the summer months.?

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

I am hoping that you may be able to give me a little information from your files on another family. The help you gave me on my Pringle line was most useful and very much appreciated.

The family I am presently working on are, I think, United Empire Loyalists as well, and married into the Pringle family. The surname is BENEDICT. See enclosed chart. The following is all the information I have on them :

1. Phoebe Benedict was born 29 Feb. 1776, possibly in New Haven Vermont, or Kingston Ont. About 1798 she married Joseph Pringle, and all of their 7 children were born near Kingston.

2. Phoebe's father was Jonathon Benedict. We know he had a half sister Eunice. Jonathon married his cousin Esther Benedict. (We are not too sure if Esther was her first name but know her maiden name was also Benedict.) They may have been married near Kingston.

3. Jonathon's father (name unknown) married twice that we know of. Jonathon's mother's name was possibly Esther.

If you have anything in your files on this family, either to confirm or extend my information, I would be most happy to hear of it. If it would be more convenient, I could make a trip to Bath to go over any information you might have as I did in 1962 about the Pringles.

Please let me know what arrangement suits you best,

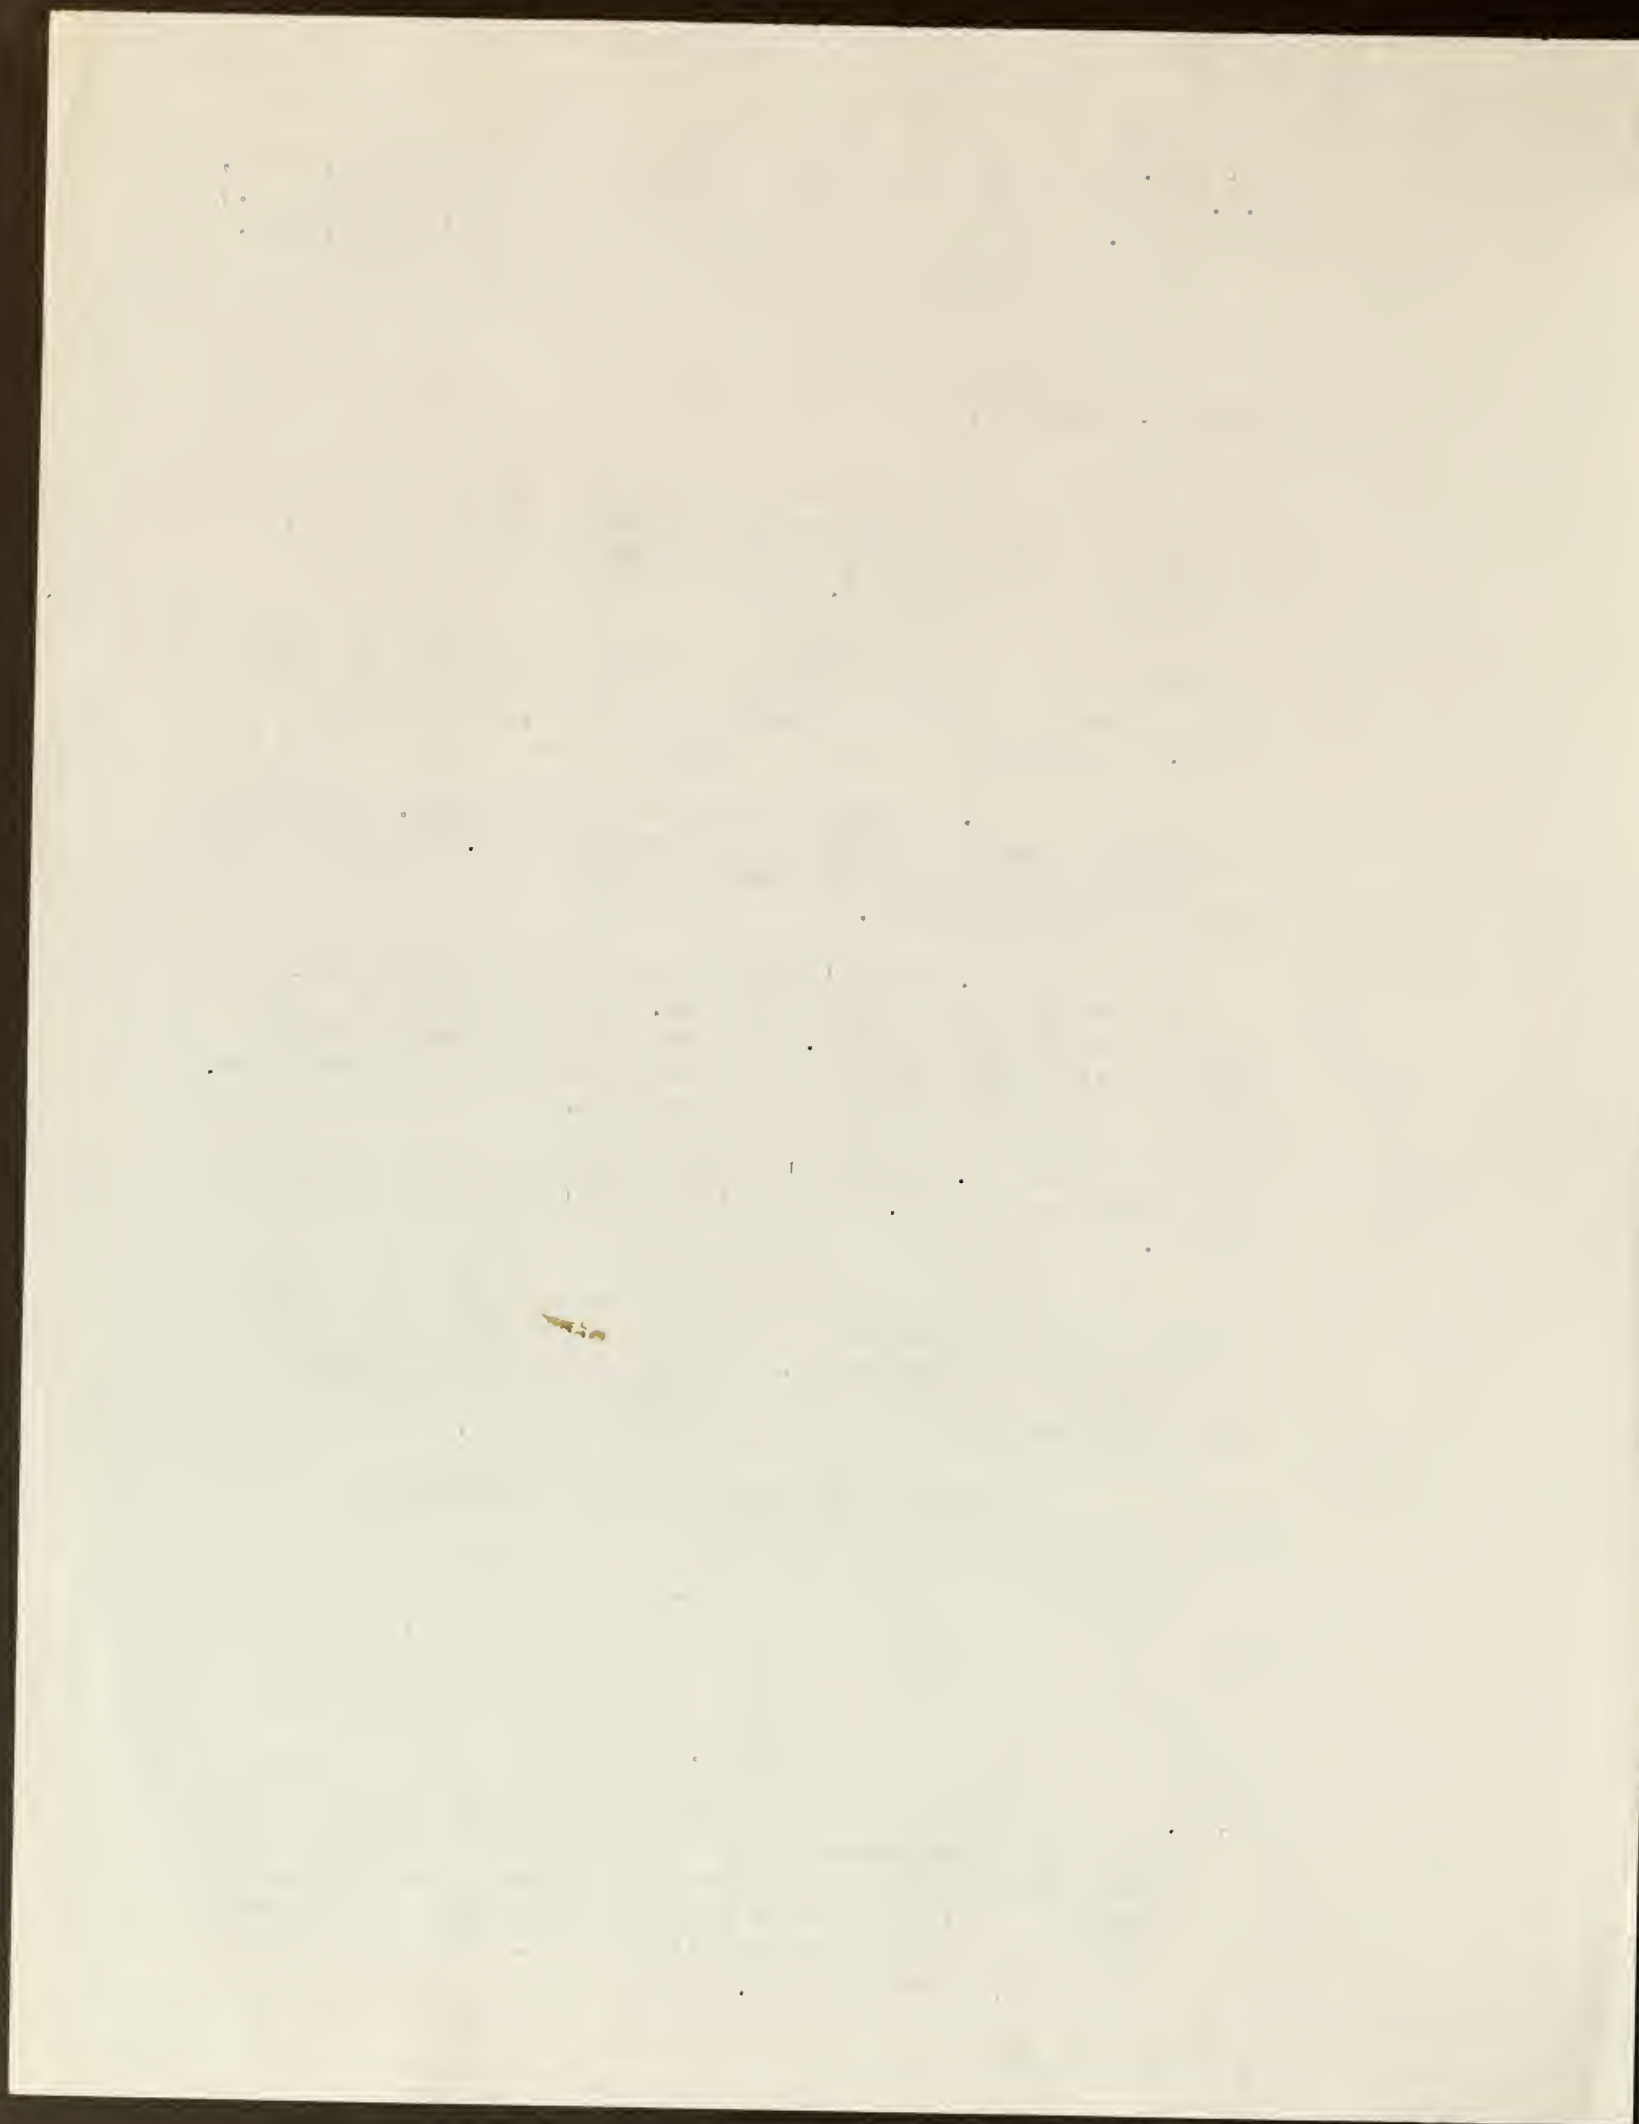

I am,
Yours Sincerely,

Agnes de Lom.
(Mrs.) Agnes deLom

P. S. Do you know if there is in existence a book which lists all the Place Names in the New England States whose names have been changed over the years, giving the old and new names ? I did hear once that there was such a book and would find it most useful in my work. By names, I refer to towns, counties, etc.

P.S. Can you tell me the location of any museums where I might tell us about their living conditions and problems, etc, at that time? Perhaps we could visit those, too.

Dear Sir:

Early this summer we hope to make a trip to Ontario and we would like very much to ~~plan~~ a side trip to the place where my great-grandfather once lived. Probably one day will be all we can take to do this so I am trying to locate more specific data than we now possess to make our day more enjoyable and also much more meaningful. We would be very very grateful if you could help us by directing our inquiries to the person most able or most willing to aid us. We would be happy to pay for their time if you could do this. I will include 10¢ for the return postage.

My great grandparents were Smith and Dorcus (Trickey) Benedict, who lived on Big Island, Prince Edward County, Ontario. Smith was married twice, but his first wife's name I do not know. They had at least one son, Andrew. About 1834 or 35 he married Dorcus Trickey and, as his sons by both marriages were born on Big Island, I presume he married there. I think they were Methodist-Episcopals, but I am not sure. The sons left by about 1855 but Smith and Dorcus lived there until about 1875 or 80 when they retired to live with their son in Michigan. Oh, Andrew apprenticed to his uncle and became a blacksmith, but I don't know the uncle's name or to which parent he was a brother, but he also lived on Big Island. I don't have their exact birth dates, but Smith was born approximately 7 Nov 1798 in New York and his 2nd wife approximately 20th June 1813, I don't know where. Andrew was born 21 Jan 1832 on Big Island and William Lyon McKenzie Benedict (my grandfather) was born 19 Oct 1837 on Big Island.

I hope this is enough information to be of help without confusion, to find the exact place where they lived and just what they did for a living.

Very sincerely, Janet L. Nelson

Dear Mr. Burling;

I am sorry it has taken me so long to send your fee. I am very anxious to receive the material but my daughter was very ill and required emergency surgery and a long convalescence. Naturally everything else was put out of my mind ~~until~~ until she was fully on the road to recovery. She is fine now.

I do hope you have included items which will give me clues as to their personality, political beliefs (U.E.L.S.??) success or failures and so on. There may not be any of this type material, I realize, but I want to write our family history as my descendants and various cousins who are not genealogy minded will be able to visualize these names as people, not statistics. Of course, I do not know if I have the talent but I sure want to try.

I very much appreciate your efforts on my behalf.
Thank you.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Beck:

We are leaving this Thursday on a business trip and the following two weeks will be part of our vacation so I will write you my comments on the material you sent after
I have had more time to "digest"
it. I wanted to let you know
I have received it and have found it fascinating. Thank you.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Mr. R. Philip Smart has suggested I write to you for help with my genealogical problem. I will be happy to pay for your time and effort, or if my request is out of your area, will you please recommend someone who can help me? I will appreciate very much any advice you could give me.

My great grandfather, William Lyon McKenzie Benedict was born 19 Oct 1837 at Big Island, Prince Edward County, Ontario, son of Smith Benedict and Dorcus Trickey. Dorcus Trickey was the second wife of Smith Benedict, whom he married about 1835. Smith had another son, Andrew B. Benedict, born also at Big Island on 21 Jan 1832. I do not know his mother's name. There was at least one other child, a girl. Smith Benedict was born in New York State 7 Nov 1798. He lived at Big Island until about 1881 when he moved to Michigan to live with his son Andrew.

One other bit of data which might be of help is that Andrew was apprenticed as a blacksmith to his uncle (name unknown to me). Both Andrew and William L. left that area by 1855 or 60.

I would like to know anything there can be found about Smith Benedict: Was he the son of a Loyalist? When and how did he come to Ontario from New York State and where in N. Y. State did he come from? His parent's names and any data on them. Smith Benedict's first wife's name and any of this other children's names. Any data that can be found on Dorcus Trickey: her parents, their occupation, where they came from, where Dorcus was born, etc.

I know this is a large order but I want to know if there might be records available and if so, what would be the fee for searching? Thank you very much for any advice you can send. I will send a self-addressed envelope and 10¢ for postage. I hope to hear from you.

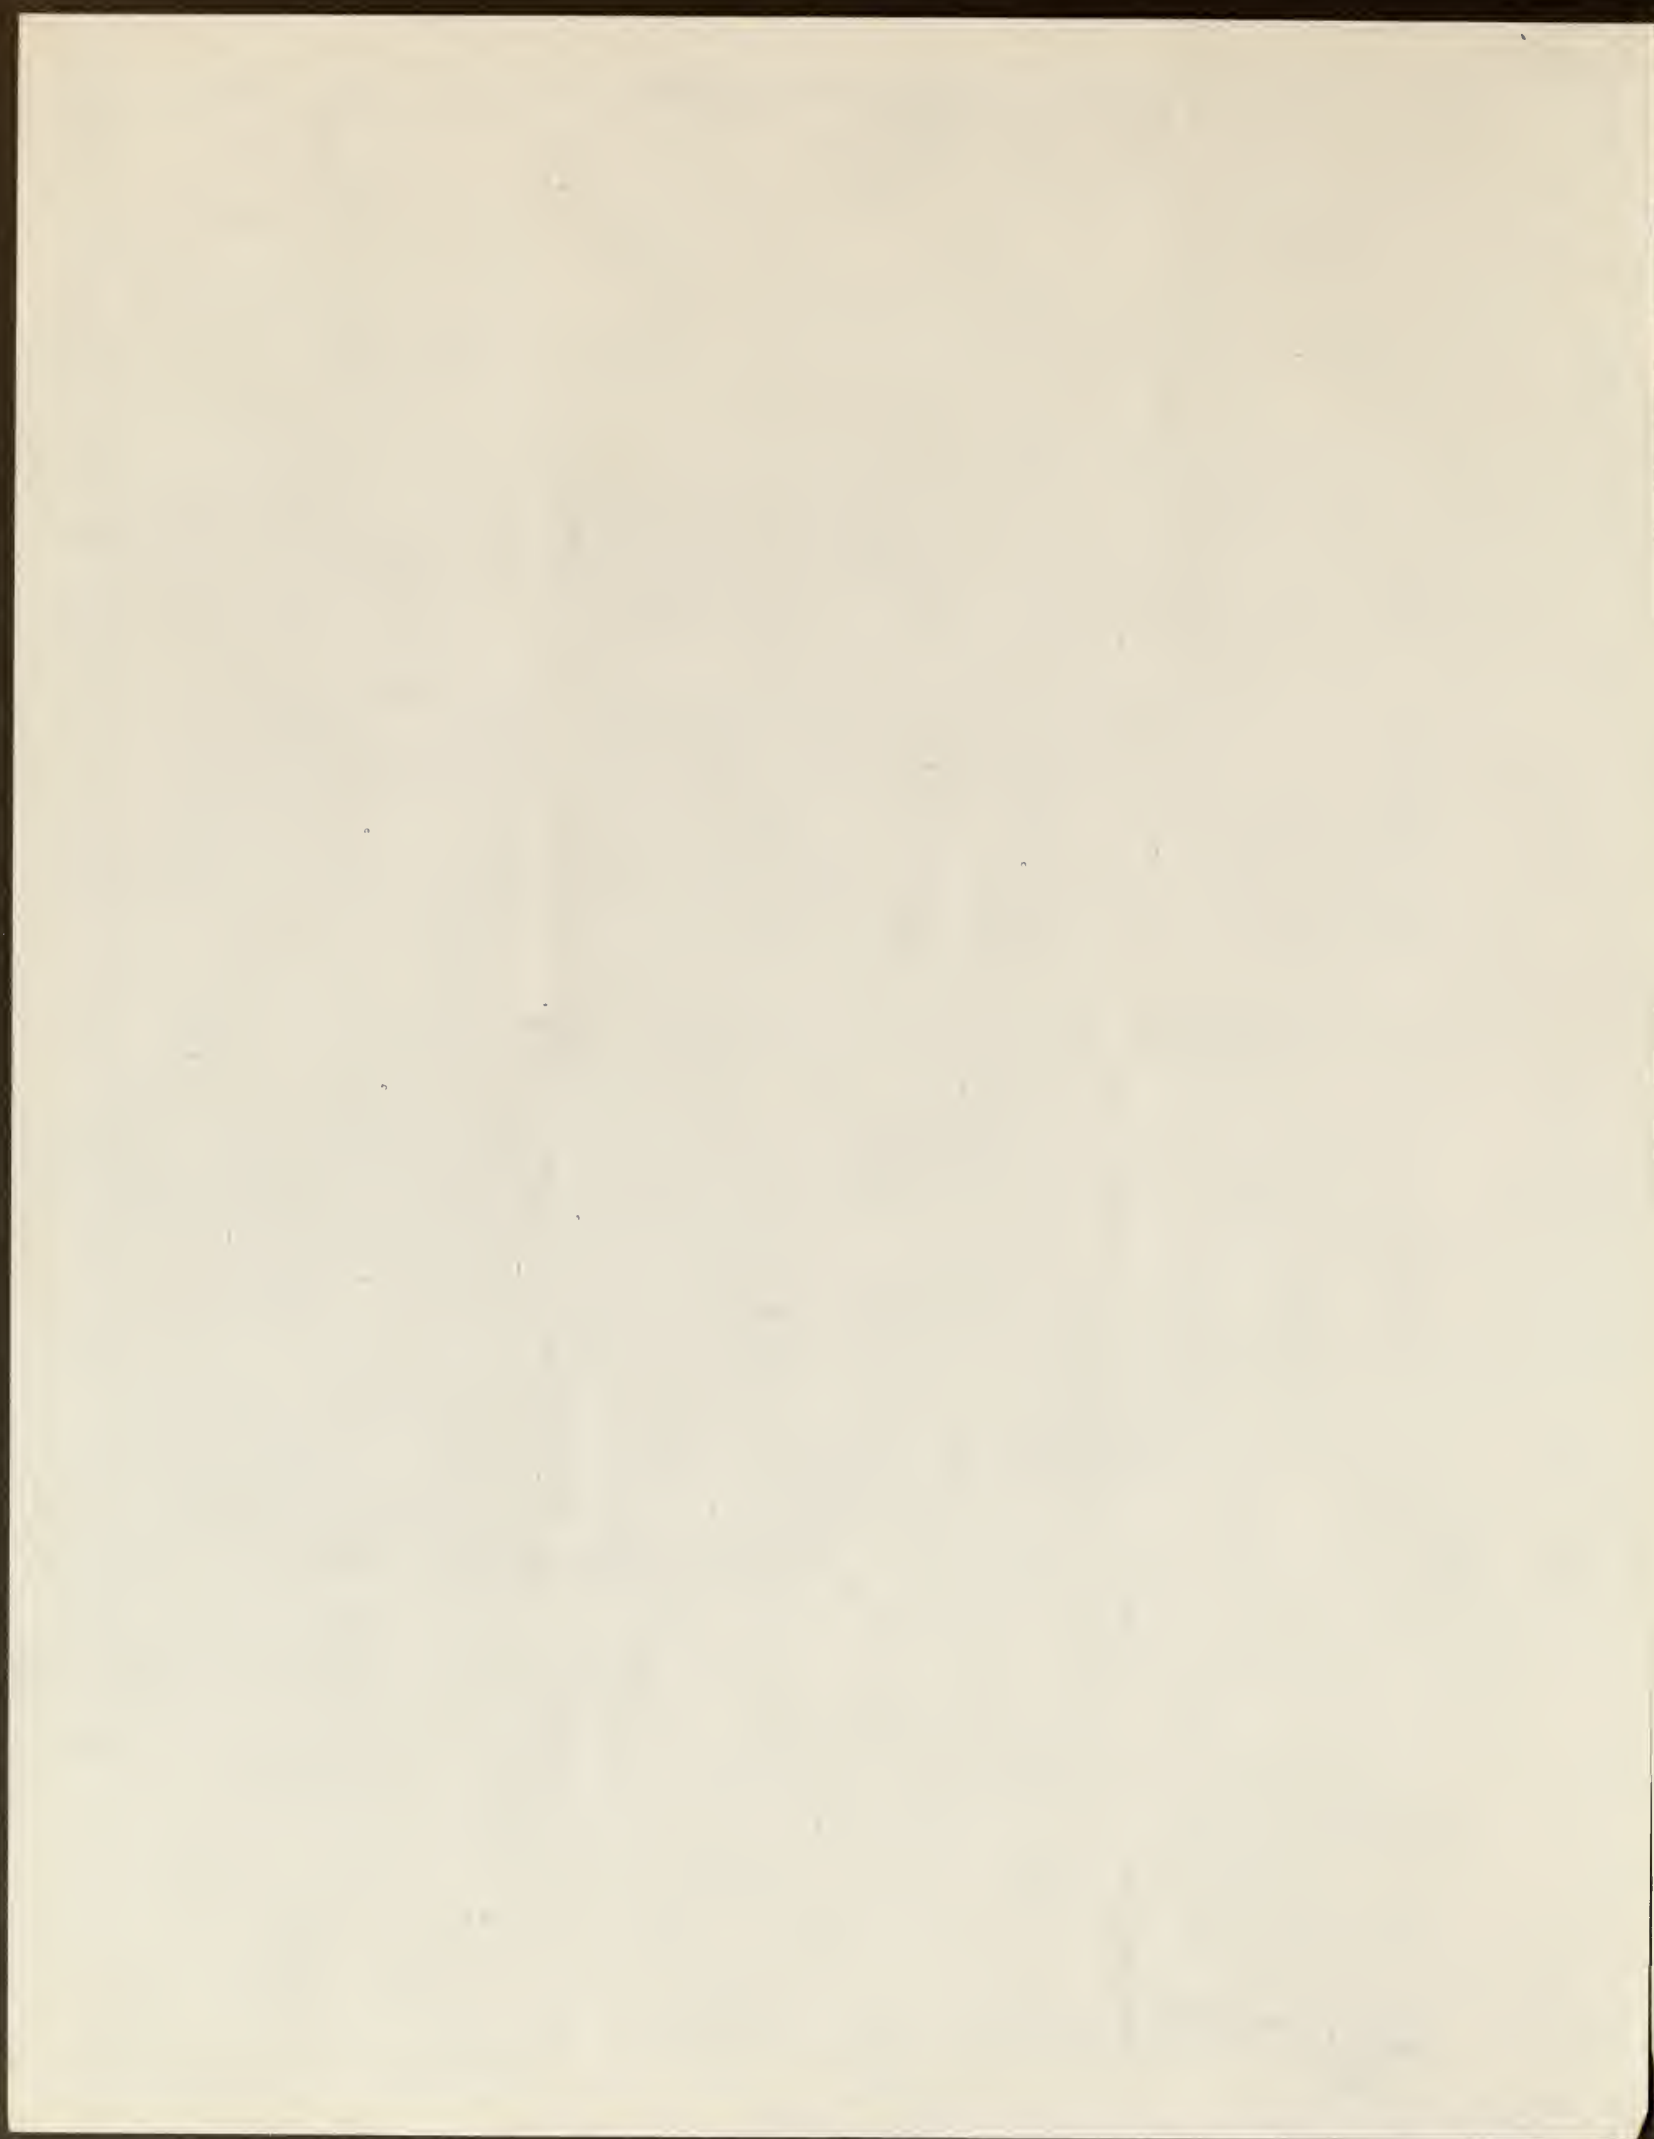

Sincerely,

Janet L. Nelson
(Mrs. Richard W. Nelson)

P.S. Is it possible there is a Benedict or Trickey still living in that area who might be descended from some of this line? I would like to write to them if there is.

I belong to the Ontario Gen. Society and notice that there is a person who does research in the Bay of Quinte area..is this the correct area for Big Island?

Captain Elisha Benedict, born 2 April 1736 at Danbury, Ct., married 1st ———; married 2nd, Jerusha Star, widow of Thomas Barnum, who fell in the French War, in Canada; she was born 26 April 1727, and died 22 July, 1799. He was a resident in Albany in 1771, when he petitioned the common council to be appointed marshal. An account in his favor was ordered paid 4 Dec. 1771. He purchased, 16 June, 1772, property in the town of Ball, county of Albany, and by the terms of the deed appears to have resided there before that date.

In 1774, he was engaged, by direction of New York Provincial Congress, in forming military companies in Cumberland County N.Y. He was commissioned Captain in the 8th Co., 2nd New York.

Continental Regiment, 29 June, 1775. He served before Quebec in 1776.

In October, 1780, Capt. Elisha and his three sons, Ensign Caleb, Elias and Felix, and his negro servant, together with other citizens of Ballston, were surprised in their beds, and taken prisoners by the British and Indians by Major Monroe. Captain Elisha and his three sons fell to the lot of Captain John, leader of the Indians, and were carried to Canada.

The pay rolls of sundry officers, etc., on file in the office of comptroller of the State of New York, shows that Captain Elisha, Elias and Felix were kept prisoners $2\frac{1}{2}$ years. He afterwards removed to Canada and died there 26 Aug., 1798.

Dear Madame:

Mr. Duff of Welland, has suggested that you might be able to help me in some genealogic research.

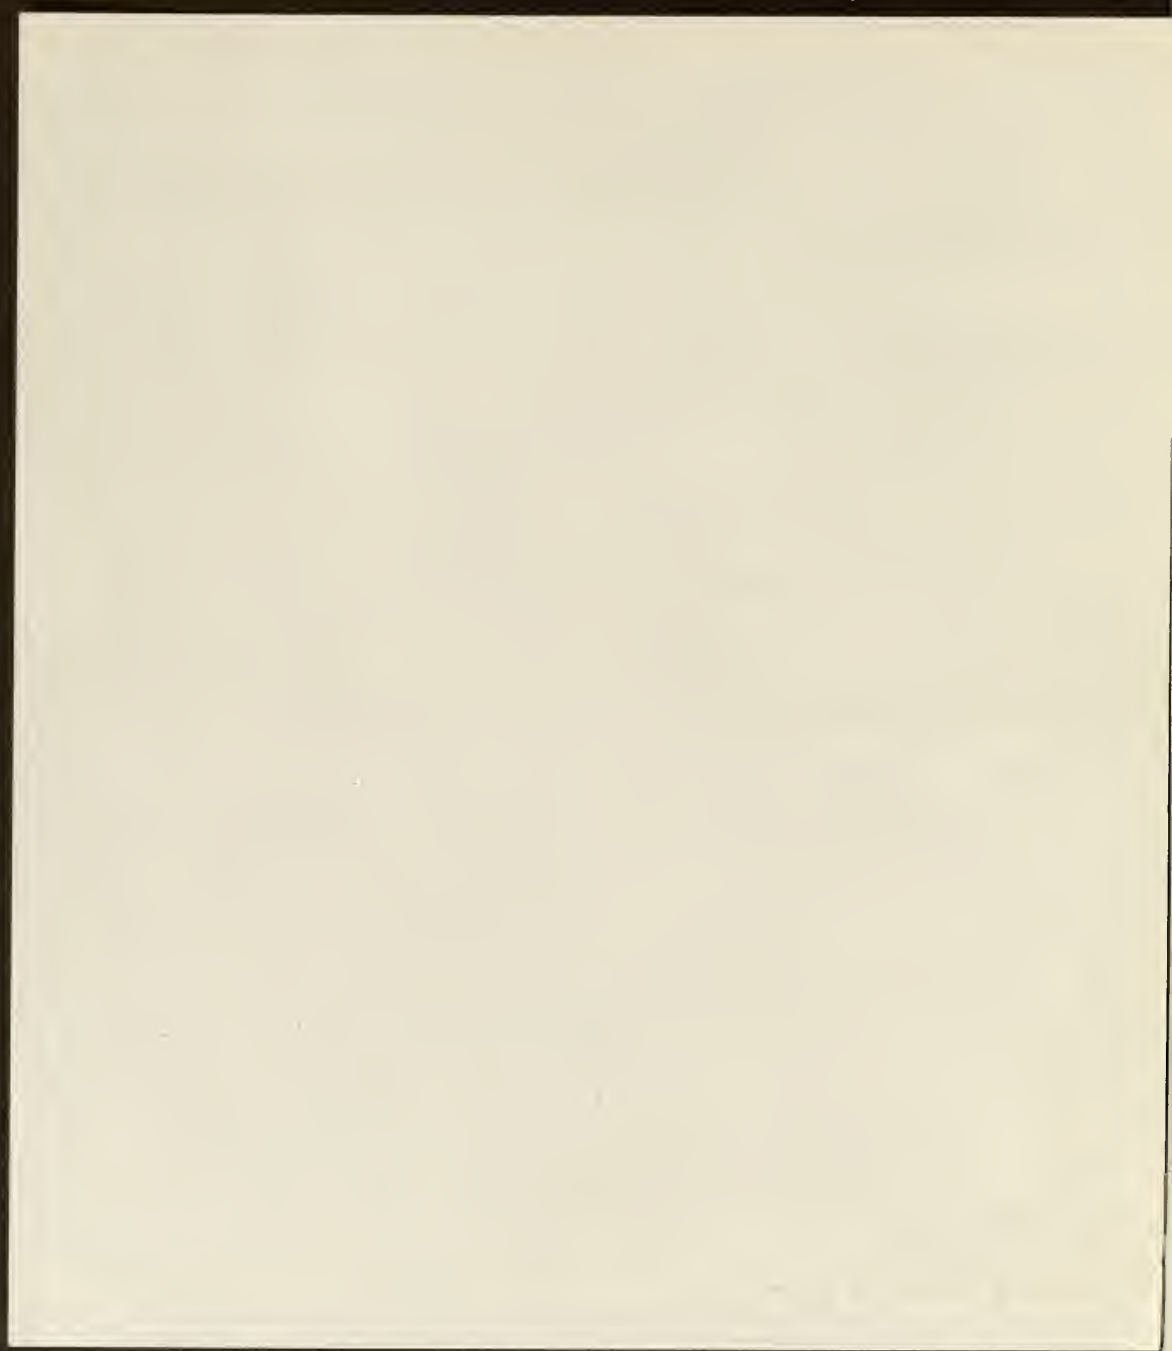

During the War of the Revolution, my great great grand~~father~~ father, Capt Elisha Benedict and one of his sons (Caleb) were prisoners of war in Canada. Some years later, they went back and lived near the Bay of Quinte. He died Aug. 26, 1798. His wife, Jerusha Starr Barnum Benedict, died July 22, 1799. They must have been buried in some local cemetery.

While I have been able to trace some of Caleb's descendants, I am a little puzzled over his burial place. The Genealogy states that he died at Danbury, Sept. 18, 1919 and even gives the inscription on his monument, I suppose this is Danbury, Conn. where we lived for several generations, up to the persons mentioned above.

Mr. Duff implies that Bath is near the Bay of Quinte and that you may have some information that would help me. If so, it would be most welcome.

Sincerely yours,

AL Benedict

Dear Mr. Burling,

- At last we are going to be able to make an Eastern trip and would appreciate it very much. If we could call upon you for genealogical research on the Caverly and Benedict lines.

Our plans are to leave here Thursday night and would probably arrive after lunch Friday ~~as we~~ have some business calls to make on the way.

If Friday evening would suit you better we can arrange that when we see you as we have calls to make in Kingston and could return from there quite easily.

I'm so grateful that you have invited me to see what you have. I'm sure I'll find some connections important to me.

Sincerely

Mrs. Selma M. Glennell,

Dear Mrs. Glennell:

I have just received your letter of 18th inst., regarding the Caverly family and its connections, and am taking this opportunity to reply.

I do not have too much about the Caverly family--just a few notes, which, fortunately, may add to your fund of knowledge. My main interest is in those families whose members are mentioned in the Rev. John Langhorn's Parish Register of Bath and adjacent churches, 1787-1813. However, I have been forced to include notes on other families. And in these, and directories, genealogies, etc., I have collected references which will assist you.

I do have much more on the Caldwell family, and its connection with the Miller Family. Both these originally settled in my Township, the former (Caldwell) later removing further west.

You are welcome to review my files on these families. Just remember that there will be a good deal, a lot of which may not be of great interest to you. These may be seen when you come east. All I ask is that you call me beforehand, in order that I may allot a time suitable to me. The best time for me is between 3 and 5 P. M., Sunday excepted. Incidentally, I shall be away from Friday, April 5 to April 8.

Both my wife and I were interested in your interest in ceramics. We know little or nothing about production methods. But we are interested in anything requiring individual effort. Our house contains much of the past, which includes, of course, family records.

Until we see you,

Yours sincerely,

H.B.

Dear Sir, - I understand you are the Genealogist for W.E.B. on the Bay of Quinte. I am tracing the genealogy of my family, the Carelys, who are descended from the Kayallist Joseph Carely. However I am interested in all Carelys for I believe they are all related and eventually I hope to have them all connected. Just now I am concentrating on my direct line and those connected with it. As far from the archives in Toronto & Ottawa, which I am ^{being} able to visit but briefly,
I have gleaned this information

Joseph Carely the Kayallist was of Thurlow but I have no records of land grants.
Land grants to his children

1. James (my ancestor) of Sydney md Elizabeth Caldwell O.C. 2 Jan 1834
- 2 Nathaniel of Kingston. O.C. 16 June 1834
- 3 Sarah md Eli Benedict of Sydney O.C. 24 Mar 1835
- 4 Joseph E. of Kingston md. Mary Parry O.C. 20 Sept. 1834
- 5 Jacob of Rawden, O.C. 7 Mar. 1833

James Carely md. Elizabeth Caldwell

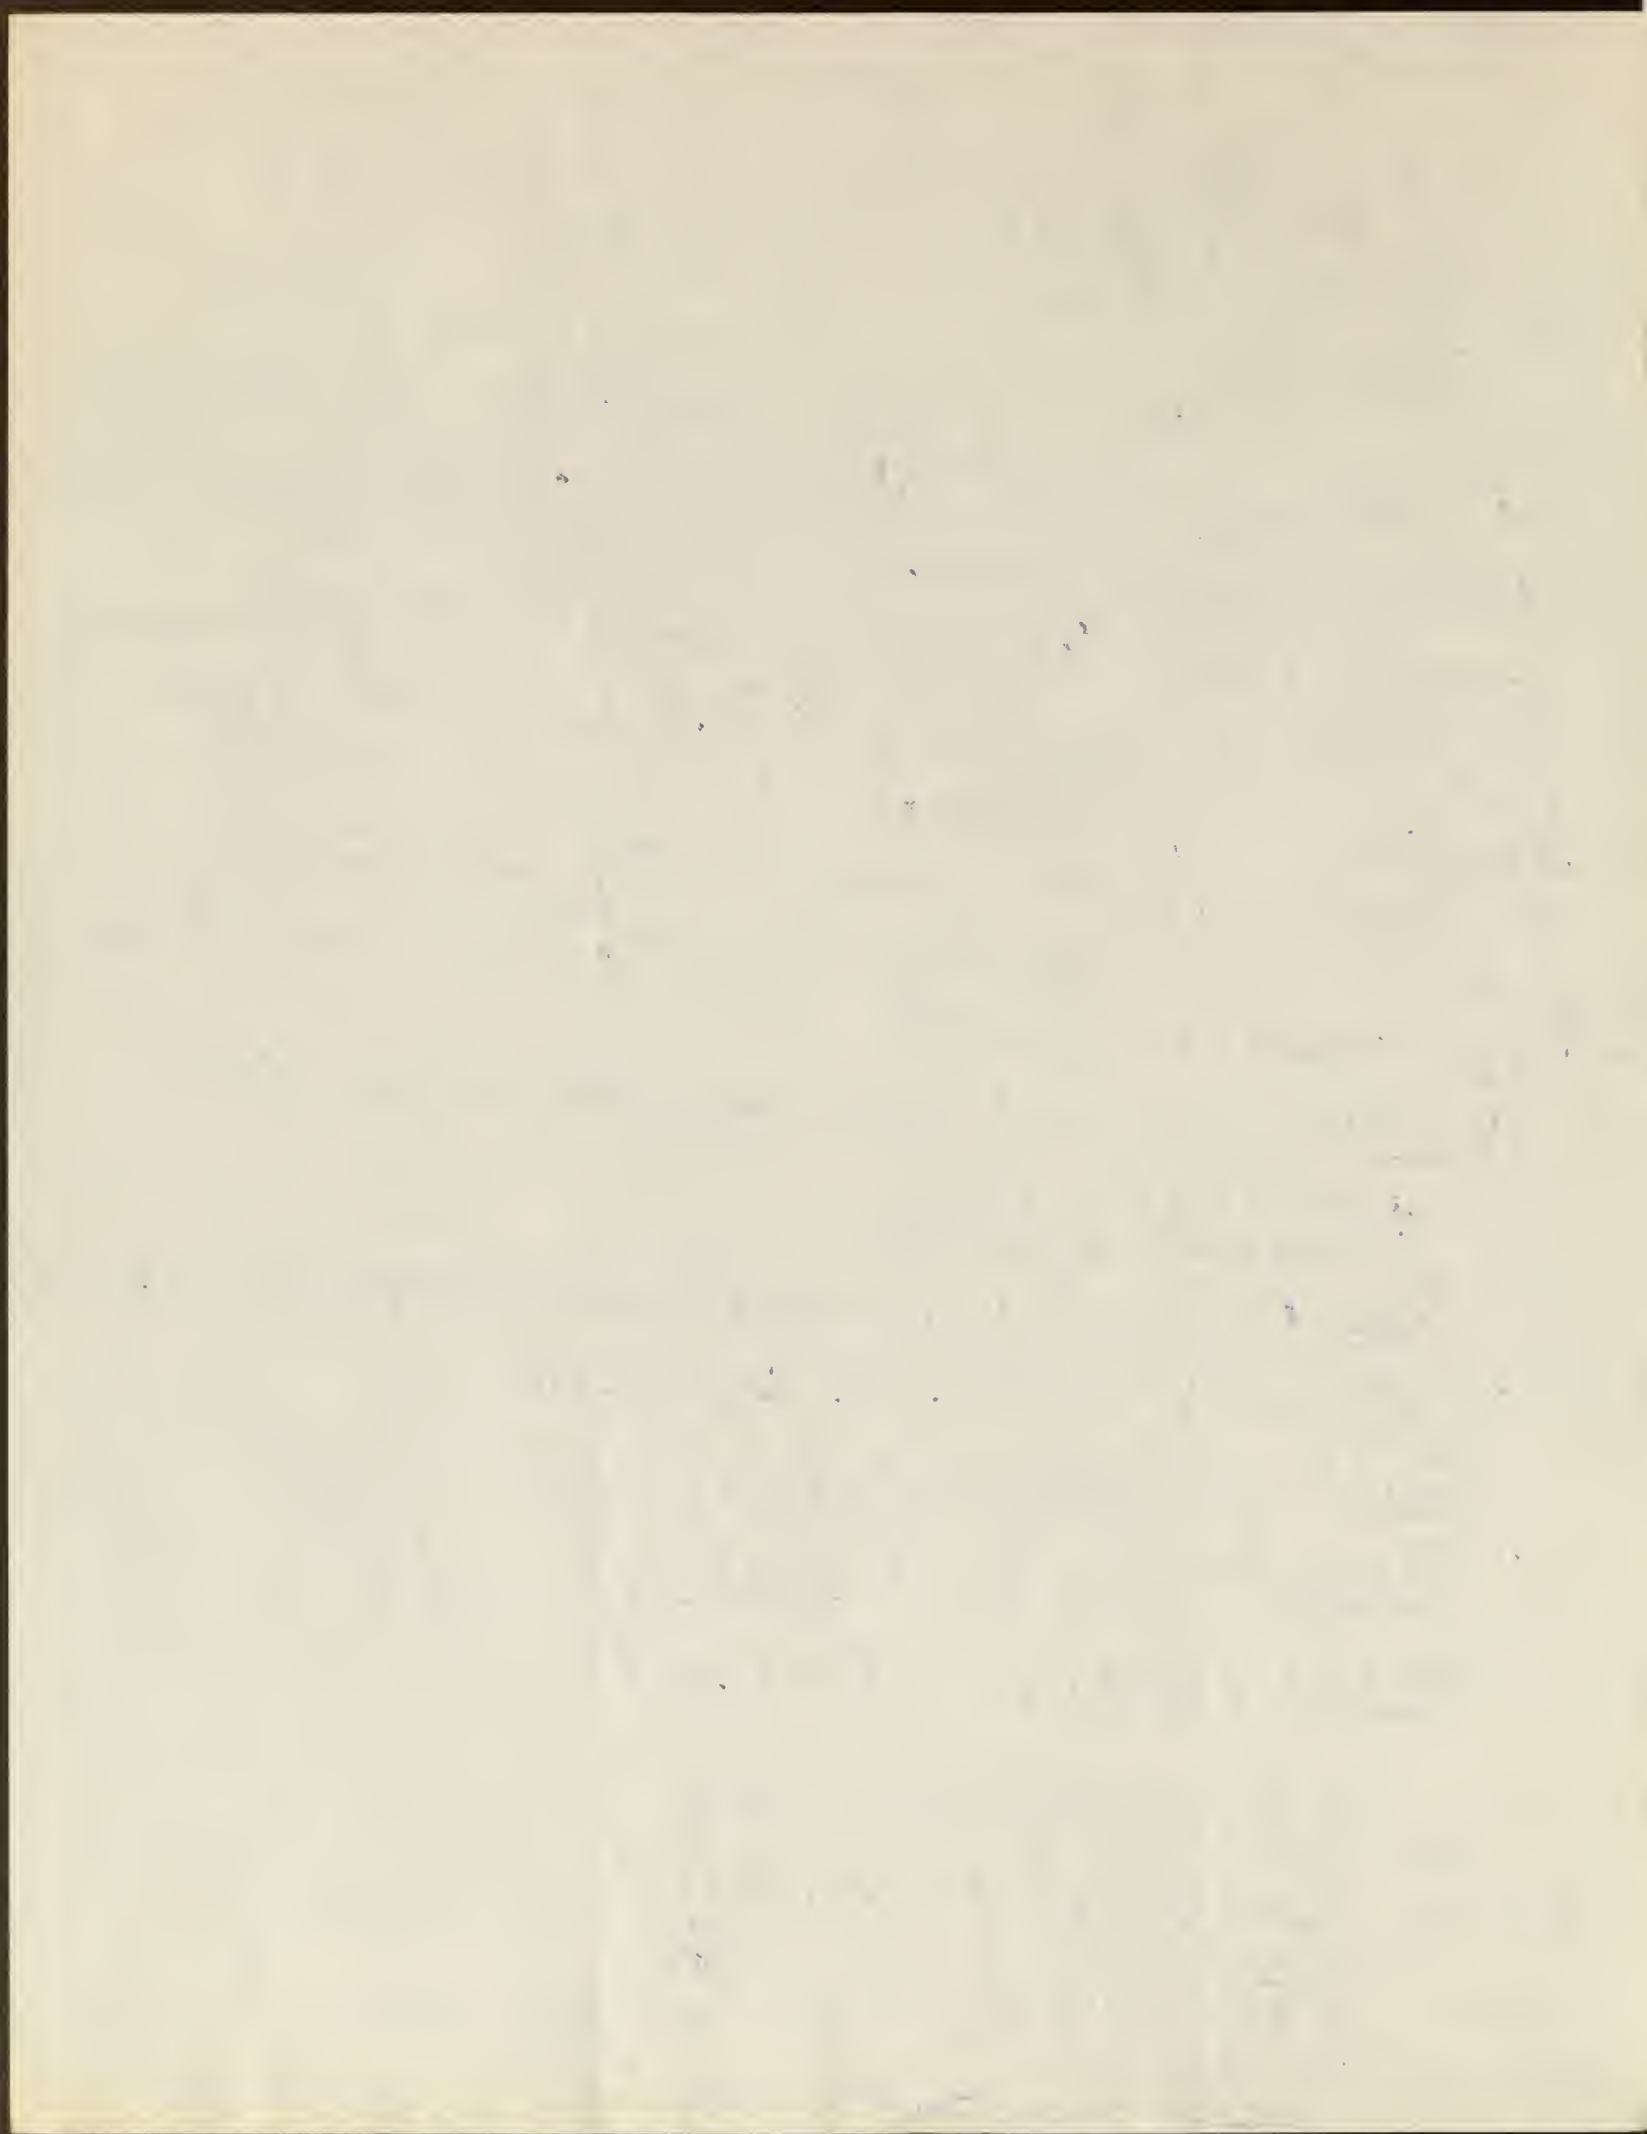

Children - Lyvester Carely born about 1825

Joseph Carely " " 1829

Samuel Carely " " 1831

Eli Carely born 1833 → my ancestor

Rachel md a ~~Wescott~~ Wescott, Melba md Porter Hubble

If you have any information on these I would appreciate it very much.

My husband and I, who are ceramicists, are hoping to make a business trip this spring perhaps as far as Montreal. Should it be convenient for you to have us call upon you? Being a doctor, I'm sure you will be very busy but if there is a time that is more convenient we would strive to make our plans accordingly.

Thanks you for your Cooperation
Sincerely

(Mrs) Selma M Stennell
